April 2011

Grand Tour is inspired by the artistic and architectural treasures of Italy discovered by young Englishmen touring Europe upon finishing their education in search of art and culture.

Drawing inspiration from global cultures, Osborne & Little introduces 13 new spring collections. Motifs from Italy, Ireland, the Orient, and the Far East are paired with a vast assortment of solids and textures at reasonable prices.

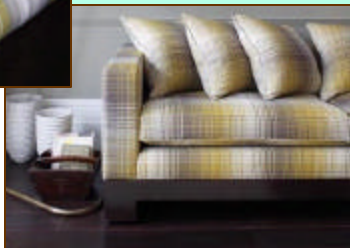

Karavansara is an exotic collection of silks and embroideries evocative of the orient trade routes.

Dhow features a collection of wide width sheers.

Named for the rugged coastline of rural Ireland Athlone is a handsome collection of checks, stripes, gingham, & tartans.

Cariani is a collection of three small scale weaves named after painter Giovanni Cariani.

Xanadu, by Lorca, showcases elegant fabrics inspired by the rhythms of South America, colored in distinctive Lorca style.
