Charlotte Moss was raised in Richmond, Virginia, near Monticello, the ancestral home of Thomas Jefferson. Her mentors were strong women like her mother and grandmother. Because of this upbringing around strong females, women have always been important influences to Moss. Behind every great fabric, there's a great woman." This, at least, was Charlotte Moss' inspiration for her premiere collection of fabric, wall coverings and upholstery for Brunschwig & Fils. The collection celebrates female writers, painters and personalities ranging from Collette to Daphne du Maurier to Vanessa Bell and the renegade Jane Digby. Charlotte Moss has designed interiors that she likes to term traditional with a twist in residences throughout the United States. She is known for combining old and new in her own unique style, drawing ideas from an ever-growing circle of female muses ranging from the worlds of fashion and philanthropy. Many of the fabrics in the new Brunschwig collection reinterpret the personal style of celebrated women into a look that is fresh for today.
